Consistent Verb Tenses

Writers need to stay consistent with their tenses when writing. Read the first three sentences in this paragraph to determine if this is in the present or past tense. Then choose the correct consistent tense in each of the following sentences.

Living with parents who are from two different countries makes life very festive. My mom is from South Korea, and my dad is from Italy. I was born in Texas, so we have three countries and cultures represented in our home. Between the three countries, we are having / had / have / will have so many fun holidays to celebrate.

My favorite Korean holiday is Chuseok, which was / is / has been / will be similar to Thanksgiving in America. My mom is preparing / prepared / is going to prepare / prepares colorful rice cakes called songpyeon. She is filling / fills / filled / will fill these bite-sized cakes with sesame seeds, chestnuts, or red beans. After we eat, we usually play games or watches / watch / are watching / will watch a movie.
